WHAT TO EXPECT

Itinerary Can Shift
Several days involve road trips, so the plan may adjust depending on arrival time, weather, or road conditions on the day.

2-Way Domestic Flight
You'll fly domestic from Lahore to Skardu and back — enjoy the views from above on both legs.

Pack Light
Expect frequent hotel check-ins and check-outs, so try to travel with no more than one piece of luggage per person.

Fruit Picking Is Seasonal
Fruit picking and cherry blossom viewing only run in season — pick your travel dates accordingly if this is on your list.

Go Easy on Chai and Raw Food
Too much milk, chai, or uncooked food can upset your stomach — pace yourself with these.

Extra Costs
Anything not listed in the itinerary — extra activities, snacks, and the like — is paid directly by you.

Long Road Trips
Some transfers run 2-6 hours between stops, but the scenery along the way makes it worthwhile.

Hotel Room Size
Hotels along this route run 3-star and tend to be modest, especially in smaller towns like Skardu and Hunza — expect less space in a triple room.

Lots of Walking
Expect plenty of walking at spots like Karimabad Bazaar, Altit Fort, and around the Sarfaranga Desert.

Tour Leader
A tour leader travels with the group from Malaysia for 10 pax and above; an Airport Conductor assists you at the Malaysian airport.
