WHAT TO EXPECT

Extra Costs Along the Way
Anything outside the itinerary — like the meal on board for HND/NRT-KUL, additional activities, transport during Free & Easy days, a public transport card, or personal expenses — is paid directly by you.

Compact Hotel Rooms
Hotels in Japan tend to run smaller than you might expect (Japan's own standard), with less space if you're booked into a triple room.

Mount Fuji View
Mount Fuji's view isn't guaranteed — visibility depends heavily on the weather in any season.

Lots of Walking
Expect plenty of walking at some locations, including the Arashiyama Bamboo Forest, city tours, and shopping streets.

Breakfast
Halal breakfast options are limited, served either at the hotel or as a packed Malay-style meal — hotel breakfasts are typically continental (pastries, eggs, fruit, milk).

Restaurant Seating
Some family members may need to seat separately due to the restaurant's own table arrangement.

Lunch & Dinner
Japanese, Malay, and Indian food is served throughout the trip, with packed food given depending on the situation — your guide will advise on Halal/Muslim-friendly restaurants for days with meals excluded.

Hotel Location
Hotels are generally located outside the city centre, offering larger rooms while staying conveniently near or accessible to public transport.

Hotel Room Type
Triple and family rooms aren't available at most hotels in Japan, so room re-arrangement may be needed — rooms next to each other aren't guaranteed.
