WHAT TO EXPECT

Hotel Room Size

Hotels in Japan tend to run small by local standard, with less space if you're booking a triple room.

Hotel Location

Hotels sit outside the city center, giving you a bit more room to stretch out — and they're still close to public transport.

Restaurant Seatings

Some restaurants seat larger families across more than one table, depending on the layout.

Limited Breakfast Options

Halal breakfast options are limited — expect a Continental spread of pastries, baked goods, fruit, milk, and coffee.

Tour Guide

Your tour guide is with you throughout the trip, except on the Free & Easy day. For the USJ add-on, the guide drops off and picks up at the entrance via public transport.

Lunch Excluded

Lunch isn't included, but your tour guide will bring you to a halal restaurant and help you order — expect to spend around ¥2,500 (RM65) per meal.

Lots of Walking

Expect plenty of walking at spots like Arashiyama Bamboo Forest, the shopping streets, and around the cities.
