WHAT TO EXPECT

Long journey ahead

Most days involve long drives, but the scenery along the way makes it worthwhile.

Several hotel check-ins

This trip includes 7 hotel check-ins along the way — stay organized to minimise hassle.

Small payments along the way

Small cash payments here and there are part of the experience.

Local regulations & customs

Be prepared for strict security checks, and refrain from open religious practices.

Halal food, simple meals

Halal options are provided, but food and meal choices may be limited in remote areas.

No public prayer rooms

Prayer can only be performed inside the bus or your hotel room — mosques here are not open to tourists.

Download translation & payment apps

Set up and download Alipay/WeChat and a translation app before your trip.

No halal signage

Halal signs are removed by the government at restaurants and food stalls, but most food is still halal.

Dress code for Muslim women

Avoid all-black clothing — choose colourful headscarves instead.
