WHAT TO EXPECT

Multiple Currencies

Denmark, Sweden, and Norway each use their own currency (10 DKK ≈ RM6.51, 10 SEK ≈ RM4.45, 10 NOK ≈ RM4.21) — handy to know when budgeting across all three countries.

Pack Light

This trip has six hotel changes, so pack light and keep to one check-in luggage per person.

Flights Depend on Availability

Flights vary by availability, but we only use premium airlines — Turkish Airlines, Qatar Airways, Etihad, Emirates, or Malaysia Airlines.

Cards & Cash

Cards are widely accepted, including Wise and Merchantrade. Cash works too — just plan ahead, since each country uses a different currency.

Tour Leader / Guide

Groups of 15+ pax travel with a Tour Leader from Malaysia. For smaller groups, a Malaysian tour guide meets you at Copenhagen Airport, and an Airport Conductor helps with check-in in Malaysia.

Private Hotel Rooms

Every guest gets their own hotel room with a private bathroom — no sharing an apartment or bathroom with other guests.

Lunch Excluded

Lunch isn't included, but we'll bring you to halal/Muslim restaurants (around EUR20-30 at your own expense). You can also add on Kembara Pack meals for lunch.

Dine-In Dinners

Three dine-in dinners are included, up to a price limit — order extra at your own expense. Meals are typically Arabic or Turkish, think kebabs, wraps, or burgers.

Kembara Pack Dinners

Five Kembara Pack dinners are included, handed over by the Airport Conductor — keep 3kg of luggage allowance free for them. Extra restaurant dinners run about EUR30-50.

Long Road Trips

The road trips between Denmark-Sweden and Sweden-Norway run long (7-8 hours), but we stop along the way to explore attractions, villages, and towns.

Halal-Friendly Breakfasts

Halal options at hotel breakfasts are limited, but Muslim-friendly choices like salmon, bread, cereals, yogurt, fruit, and salads are usually available (menus vary by hotel).
